

Governance Practices Forum Agenda

Wednesday 26 August, 10:00-13:00 AWST

Discover how governance, leadership and organisational culture can be enablers or barriers in progress towards net zero for precinct-scale developments.

Join expert presenters and researchers from the RACE for 2030 Pathways to Net Zero Precincts project to learn from industry case studies and discover the latest research findings.

10:00 –10:10	Welcome and introduction
10:10 –10:25	Presentation 01: Culture and Leadership in the Private Sector for Net Zero Ben Lisle (Managing Director, Hesperia)
10:25– 10:40	Breakout group discussions
10:40–10:50	Feedback from breakout groups
10:50–11:05	Presentation 02: Internal Barriers and Enablers for Net Zero in Australian Land Development James Butterfield (Innovation and Reform Manager, DevelopmentWA)
11:05–11:20	Breakout group discussions
11:20–11:30	Feedback from breakout groups
11:30–11:40	Break
11:40–11:55	Research Briefing: Culture, Leadership, and Internal Barriers and Enablers in the Australian Property Development Industry for Net Zero Dr Rob Weymouth (Technical Lead – Governance Practices, Net Zero Precincts)
11:55–12:10	Breakout group discussions
12:10–12:20	Feedback from breakout groups
12:20 –12:30	Wrap up and closing comments

* Please note all times are in AWST